

I'm concerned about the LPFM possibly being given priority over regional or national services. KLOVE serves a valuable service for my family and myself in the community. I like listening to a station that does not have commercials and the contemporary Christian content. The local community would not have another station like this if it were displaced. KLOVE serves a valuable service to us by providing us with a non-commercial station our entire family can listen to.